My Windows at Stanworth Hall in Essex. Worked by W. Knighton of Stanworth Hall. Carefully drawn and finely painted. The initials at the top are written in a diamond shape with a small inscription beneath them.

C. W. M. 1759

I am sure the window, etc., will be of great use to you.
The niche window in the north aisle of St. Church in the parish of South Walsham in the county of Suffolk, by T. St. J. Y. May 31, 1748. T. St. J. Y.